Deed of Gift Agreement

I _____ (name of the interviewee) and _____ (name of the interviewer) hereby give, convey, and assign to the Randolph County Archives of Oral History and the Randolph County Heritage Museum, which is currently in possession of an audio interview or oral memoir of _____ (interviewee) and conducted by _____ (interviewer), to have and to hold the same absolutely and forever.

In doing so, the interviewee and interviewer understand that the audio interview or oral memoir will be made accessible for academic research and public dissemination by tape and/or transcription. Any royalties, fees, or other monetary payments received by the Randolph County Heritage Museum from the use of these items will be paid to the Five Rivers Historic Preservation, Inc. and earmarked for the upkeep and support of the Randolph County Heritage Museum and the Randolph County Archives of Oral History.

We understand that the Randolph County Heritage Museum will use this item for historic, academic, and public dissemination purposes. Understanding this, the interviewee and interviewer relinquish:

1. All legal title and literary property rights they possess to this work.
2. All rights, title, and interest in copyright to this work including the rights of reproduction, distribution, public performance and/or display.

The only conditions which we, the interviewee and the interviewer, place on this gift are:

The interviewee and interviewer must sign and date below to formally grant the gift of this audio interview or oral memoir to the Randolph
County Archives of Oral History and the Randolph County Heritage Museum.
